- Should payment not be made by the due date we reserve the right to charge interest at 2% per calendar month (minimum charge £5.00) on any unpaid amounts and such interest shall continue to be payable notwithstanding that any part payment has been made and as well before as after any judgement and in addition to paying the amount shown on any invoice and interest you will pay to us on demand any expenses incurred by us (which without limiting the generality shall include administrative legal expenses) directly or indirectly, in connection with processing or enforcing payment.

Retention of Title and Risk

The property in the goods shall not pass to the customer until the amount invoiced for the goods and all other sums owing by the customer and due for payment have been paid in full. Until such payment is received the customer shall hold the goods as Bailee and shall keep the goods properly stored protected and insured and identified as the property of Swains. The customer shall not be entitled to pledge or in any way charge by way of security any of the goods which remain the property of Swains. If the customer defaults in the payment of any sum owing to Swains then Swains shall be entitled to the immediate return of all goods sold to the customer in which property has not passed to the customer. The customer irrevocably authorises Swains to enter any of its premises for the purpose of recovering goods in such circumstances and agrees that this condition does not itself discharge the customer's liability to pay the full price for all goods delivered.

Damaged or Lost Goods

- Although we shall endeavour to ensure that all goods are carefully packed and dispatched, any damaged or missing items must be reported within three (3) days of receipt of consignment and notified in writing within seven (7) days.
- If the Buyer fails to notify the Seller within the time specified above, he shall be liable to pay for the goods undelivered or damaged as though they had been delivered in good condition.

Returns

In the event of a buyer requiring to return goods for any reason other than faulty manufacture or damage caused in transit to their premises, returns will only be accepted if prior written permission has been obtained from the seller. Such returns shall be subject to a re-stocking charge of 20% of the total original invoice value.
